Local business visited by Olympic athlete

International Heptathlete Louise Hazel, visit local company Personal Career Management

Louise Hazel, Olympic athlete recently made a visit to Personal Career Management at their Head Office in Chalfont St Peter. The Buckinghamshire based career coaching and outplacement company sponsored Louise who represented Team GB in the Heptathlon at the London 2012 Olympic Games. Personal Career Management welcomed Louise at their offices in Chalfont Hall, Chalfont St Peter to talk about her experience through and after the Olympics and how this can be used as lessons with the workplace.

“We are delighted to have sponsored Louise who will be giving guest appearances at a number of the events we hold for our Corporate clients and HR Directors. Louise is full of energy, very charming, and commercially astute. We know she is going to be an entertaining and inspirational speaker at the events.” says Corinne Mills, MD of Personal Career Management.

Personal Career Management are the UK’s leading provider of career coaching and outplacement services supporting individuals through career transition as well as supporting companies through redundancy programmes. The company partner with the Guardian, Telegraph and Monster and regularly feature on national TV and Radio.

The company celebrates its 10th year in business with continued demand for career management services and further expansion with its fifth UK office opening next month.
